INVITES YOU TO

"THE GAME"

Harvard vs Yale

Saturday, November 18th

Doors Open at 10:00 AM at Risky Business (Sunrise and Kolb)

Come and enjoy one of the greatest traditions in football since 1875

The Harvard-Yale Football Game

The 134th version of The GAME will be held on November 18, 2017, the usual Saturday before Thanksgiving. With the game being played in the Yale Bowl this year, therefore the Yale Club of Southern Arizona will be considered the host.

Once again, we will rejoice or grieve at Risky Business, 6866 East Sunrise Road. Keep in mind the possibility of a traffic conflict with El Tour de Tucson which is routed westbound on Sunrise that morning. While the Kick-off is at 10:30am, Risky's has agreed to open for us at 10am so we can order our bloody marys, mimosas and meal before Kick-off. Risky's is planning to provide its Tailgate menu, adding fun options for us. To lessen the glare on the huge flat screens (better to see the carnage and massacre,) we will again use the inside room, adjacent to the one we've used in the past.

It will be helpful for Risky's to have an estimate of fans attending (family is welcome too). Please RSVP as soon as your plans are clear for that day. Even if you decide at the last moment you are able to attend, don't let the absence of an RSVP stop you. The estimate simply helps Risky's to plan its staffing to provide us with top notch service.

Risky Business is in the southwest quad of Sunrise and Kolb (6866 East Sunrise Drive, 577-0021). It may be a bit easier to enter from the South on Kolb Road to avoid the minimal Tour de Tucson action. Come and enjoy the camaraderie as the Harvard and Yale Clubs of Southern Arizona meet again to watch The Game!

Please RSVP to Gary Gutierrez at 520-425-7979 or ggutierrez@mba1977.hbs.edu
